4. When This Privacy Notice Applies

This Privacy Notice applies to personal information collected by The Stay Club; it does not apply to any collection of personal information by third party companies, individuals, organisations or via other websites which The Stay Club website may link to. Where third parties collect your personal information, their own privacy policies will apply. We urge you to read these carefully.

5. What We Are Responsible For

The Stay Club is a “data controller”; this means that we are responsible for deciding how we collect, hold and use your personal information. We are required under GDPR to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice. We may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notices or information we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing your personal information, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

6. Data Protection Principles

The Stay Club will comply with data protection law. This says that any personal information that we hold about you must be

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited to only those purposes
- Accurate and up to date
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purpose we have told you about or as long as legally required
- Stored securely

LONDON STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

We also collect, use and share aggregated data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose.

Aggregated data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your usage data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature. However, if we combine or connect aggregated data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy notice.

Occasionally we may receive health data or other sensitive data from a tenant without having requested this information. An example of this being when a tenant may email us a doctor's letter that we have not requested. In this situation, we will deem that the tenant has provided explicit consent for us to process this data.

Special categories of data we collect are limited to biometric only, specifically ID Cards/Passports. These are collected and required for legitimate interests including resident identification and safeguarding. All other Special categories of data are not routinely collected however, we may do so if required for legitimate interests. These include but are not limited to details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic data or criminal conviction and offenses data.

10. Why We Collect Your Personal Data

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Legitimate commercial, operational or financial interest
- To perform a contract with you
- To comply with legal obligations, including health and safety
- Marketing
- Fraud prevention
- Informing you about relevant Stay Club activities
- Staff training

THE STAY CLUB

- Security and welfare
- Complaint management

11. Internet Data

Although we provide free internet access within our residential buildings, the internet connection is controlled and managed exclusively by a third party on our behalf. In addition, this third party owns all the internet management hardware within the building. This third party is currently Cablecom Networking Limited (operating as Studentcom) of 1 Rivermead Court, Kenn Business Park, Windmill Road, Kenn, Clevedon, BS21 6FT. As we have no authority or ability to access personally identifiable information passing over the internet connection Cablecom Networking Limited is deemed to be the data controller of the internet data. Unless otherwise notified, this will continue to apply regardless of any future changes to the provider of this service.

12. How Long We'll Keep Your Information

We will only retain your personal information for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

13. How We May Use Information About You

We will only use your personal information as and when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information as follows:

- Contractual – where we need to perform a contract we have entered into with you (or vice-versa for suppliers/contractors)

THE STAY CLUB

LONDON STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

- Legal requirement – where we need to comply with a legal obligation
- Legitimate interest – where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights not override those interest
- Vital interest – we need to protect your or someone else's interests
- Public interest – were it is required in the interest of the wider public of official purposes

14. Sharing Welfare or Behavioural Information

In certain circumstances, where we are concerned about the welfare or behaviour of a tenant or user of The Stay Club website or premises, we may share this information with third parties in the interest of the data subjects, public interest, or in accordance with other exceptions permitted under data protection law. Where information of this nature is shared, it will usually be one of the third parties listed below

- The tenant's university/educational establishment (e.g. university welfare office)
- Healthcare professionals (e.g. local authority mental healthcare team)
- Emergency services

We have suitable safeguards, policies and procedures in place to ensure this information is treated confidentially and is only shared with third parties after careful consideration.

We may share this data without consent of the data subject especially where it is in the public interest, the vital interests of the tenant or necessary to comply with proper safeguarding practises.

In highly exceptional circumstances, we may also contact emergency contact persons to share welfare or behavioural information. However, any decision to share this information can only be authorised at the highest level of the organisation and after careful consideration for the data privacy rights and freedoms of the tenant.

THE STAY CLUB

15. If You Fail to Provide Your Personal Information

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you (for example, to provide you with products or services). In this case, we may have to cancel a product or service you have with us but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

16. Change Of Purpose

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for a different purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. If required, we will seek your consent.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, where this is required or permitted by law.

17. Data Transfers

Data we collect may be transferred to, stored and processed across international borders.

18. Disclosing Your Information To Other Third Parties

We may share your personal information with the following categories of recipients

- IT service providers, including internet service providers, IT system provider, web application service providers, data backup providers, mail hosting providers, customer reservation and management systems, call recording systems, postal package tracking systems, asset tracking systems
- Organisations providing legal services
- Health and safety advisors
- Auditors, accountants, lawyers and other professional advisors
- Statutory bodies where we are required to share data
- Banks, card payment gateways, merchant acquirers, and other financial services organisations

- Emergency services
- Universities and other educational establishments
- Local authorities
- Organisations requesting landlord references
- Investors
- Tenants
- Contractors working for The Stay Club including security contractors, maintenance contractors, IT contractors and other relevant contractors
- Insurers

19. Data Security

Information system and data security is imperative to us to ensure that we are keeping our customers and contractors safe.

We operate a robust and thorough process for assessing, managing and protecting new and existing systems which ensures that our systems are up to date and secure against the ever-changing data protection threat landscape.

20. Your Rights In Relation To Your Personal Information

You have various rights relating to your personal data, which we have summarised below. To exercise these rights please contact dataprotection@thestayclub.com. If you wish to find out more about the rights available to you or to make a complaint, please contact the Information Commissioner's Officer (ICO), the UK regulator here.

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the following rights

a. Your right to be informed

You have the right to be provided with clear, transparent and easily understandable information about how we use your personal data and your rights. Therefore, we are providing you with the information in this privacy notice.

b. Your right of access

You have the right to access the personal data we hold about you and certain other information (such as that provided in this Privacy Notice). This is so you can check that we are using your information in accordance with data protection laws.

c. Your right to correct and erase your personal data

You have the right to ask us (and third parties to whom we may transfer your personal data) to rectify your personal data if it becomes inaccurate or incomplete. You have the right to ask us to erase your personal data if:

- Consent was originally required, and you subsequently withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal data;
- Your personal data has been processed unlawfully by us; or
- Your personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which we collected it or there is no compelling reason for us to continue processing it.

You may also have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary notice. Whether or not this is appropriate in any case depends on the purposes for which your information is being processed.

We may notify any third parties with whom we have shared your information that you have made a rectification request. We will take reasonable steps to do this, but this may not always be possible or may involve disproportionate effort.

d. Your right to restrict the processing of your personal data

You have the right to restrict, 'block' or suppress further use of your information if

- the accuracy of your personal data is contested

THE STAY CLUB

LONDON STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

- your personal data has been processed unlawfully by us but you do not want to request erasure
- we no longer need your personal data for our original purpose but it is required to establish, exercise or defend legal rights
- you have requested erasure of your personal data and verification of our grounds for continued processing is pending

When processing is restricted, we can still store your information but may not use it further. We keep records of people who have asked for further use of their information to be 'blocked' to make sure the restriction is respected in the future.

e. Your right to data portability

You have rights to obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes in a commonly used machine-readable format, and to have your personal data transferred to another data controller on your request.

f. Your right to object to processing

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your situation at any time, to processing of personal data concerning you that is based on us exercising our legitimate interests.

If we can show compelling legitimate grounds for processing your personal data which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or we need your personal data to establish, exercise or defend legal claims, we can continue to process it. Otherwise, we must stop using the relevant information.

You also can object at any time to use of your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

g. Your right to lodge a complaint

You have the right to lodge a complaint about the way we handle or process your personal data with the UK regulator, the ICO, here.

THE STAY CLUB

LONDON STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

h. Your right to withdraw consent

If you have given your consent to allow us to process your personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time (although your withdrawal of consent does not mean the processing of your data up to that point was unlawful).

Your rights, as summarised above, are subject to various exceptions. We usually act on requests to provide information within 20 working days from receiving your request. However, if the request is going to take longer to deal with we will advise you of this.

21. Cookies

We use cookies on our website. For further information see our cookies policy.

22. Changes To This Notice

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information. This privacy policy has been in effect since 25th May 2018.
